

Consuelo's Story

Aunt Consuelo left Spain at the age of 28, in the height of the Spanish civil war.

The civil war changed her life. They had to choose between life and death.

They travelled from Cabanas to Porto, Portugal. There they took a cargo ship. The trip was long and tedious.

He could never go back to Galicia. Consuelo died without returning to his land, although his children and grandsons did.

