

ROBERTO BLANCO TORRES

By Helena & Nerea

We chose him because I haven't got any migrant family and he was a very important person in the Galician emigration movement in Havana

He was a...

Writer

Politician

Poet

Journalist

He was born in Cuntis (Pontevedra) on the 18th March of 1891.

10 siblings in the family

In 1906 he decided to emigrate to Havana

In Havana, he devoted himself to literature and journalism

He collaborated with magazines and newspapers, such as Follas Novas. He founded some magazines, such as La Tierra Gallega

He came back to Galicia in 1916

Then the Civil War broke up.
He was executed by firearm (2/10/1936) in Ourense by the falangists, because he was against Franco.

