A migration story

Flora Cal, a future Galician migrant, was born in 1951 in a small village in A Coruña

Her parents migrated to Argentina, Buenos Aires

Her father left in 1952 at the age of 27. He left from the port of Vigo

In January of 1995, she and her mother left to Vigo, to embark and join his father in Buenos Aires

It was a very long and a very tiresome trip, almost 21 days. She got a contagious disease on the ship

In Argentina, she worked a lot to earn a living

Now Flora lives in Buenos aires
