

PENTTI HAMUNEN

- He lives in Halivaara, Juuka.
- He doesn't have Karelian background.

- Pentti's family was told that they would inhabit Karelian evacuees only a few days before the evacuees arrived. They got the information from the village of Juuka
- One Karelian family lived with them for one summer during the war.
- The family came from Hyrsylä.
- When they came to Juuka they didn't have much stuff with them.

- He got new friends from this family. The kids were the same age.
- This Karelian family had 5 kids and a mom when they arrived in Halivaara.
- The Karelian family's father was fighting in the Continuation War.
- The older kid was about 9 years old and the younger kid was about one year old when they came to Juuka.

- There wasn't any cultural and language difference between the families
- The Karelian family integrated well in Juuka.

- At the end of the summer the Karelian family moved to their own house in Juuka. When they had moved they got their own animals like cows and horses.
- The Karelian family has visited Hyrskylä after war.

- Pentti and the older kid of the Karelian family were in the army at the same time . They are still good friends.

- Here are we and Pentti Hamunen

