

Ragnheiður Sigurðardóttir

My name is Hildur 😊

About Ragnheiður

- Her name is Ragnheiður Sigurðardóttir
- 86 years old
- She was born in Eyrarbakki, in the south Iceland.
- Lived in Danmark for 3 years and married a danish man.
- One younger sister and 6 older brothers.
- Two children, three grand children and three great grandchildren.

Ragnheiður's childhood

- Worked at a farmhouse with her parents when she was a kid
- Took care of a cow named Húfa.
- She and Húfa became a very good friends.
- 18 years old went to home economics school and stayed there for a while.

The second World War

Ragnheiður remembered that there was a windowless room that everyone had to go to if the emergency bell would call. She always went to her grandmother during the radionews, because she was too afraid to listen to them and her grand mother didn't have a radio which she thought was good.

